

Wake Up

Coheed and Cambria

I'm gonna ride this plane out of your life again
I wish that I could stay but you argue
More than this I wish, you could've seen my face
In backseats staring out of the window I'll do anything for you
Kill anyone for you So leave yourself intact
'Cause I will be coming back
In a phrase to cut these lips
I love you The morning will come
In the press of every kiss
With your head upon my chest
Where I will annoy you
With every waking breath
Until you decide to wake up I've earned through hope and faith
On the curves around your face
That I'm the one you'll hold forever
If morning never comes for either one of us
Then this I pray to you wherever I'll do anything for you
This story is for you
I'll do anything for you
Kill anyone for you So leave yourself intact
'Cause I won't be coming back
In a phrase to cut these lips
I loved you The morning will come
In the press of every kiss
With your head upon my chest
Where I will annoy you
With every waking breath
Until you decide to wake up The morning will come
In the press of every kiss
With your head upon my chest
Where I will annoy you
With every waking breath
Till you decide to wake up
