The Chase

Hello Mahalo

A blaze of deceit trails after you
Following it blindly as I always do
A flicker of a flame ignites my rage
And if it does not cease then I'm the one to blameIf you run I'll catch up with you
And if you lie I'll believe
Nothing wrong with a little tragedy
'Till I realize you're goneHail of defeat is upon me
Through the crystal mist I cannot see
Some say it's temporary misery
But I, simply don't agreeAnd if you run I'll catch up with you
And if you lie I'll believe
Nothing wrong with a little tragedy
'Till I realize you're gone
