

Omaha

Waylon Jennings

Omaha, oh you've been weighin' heavy on my mind
Guess, I never really left it all
I'm turnin' all those roads, I walked around the other way
Coming back to you Omaha Omaha, Nebraska wasn't good enough for me
I always thought I was the roamin' kind
With the pockets full of dreams in my worn shirt on my back
I left there looking for some things to find Rode my thumb to San Francisco, I worked down by the bay
Got some schoolin' paid for by the law
The hardest thing I learned there was there ain't no easy way
To get ahead behind those county walls So it's so long California reckon, I'll be a movin' on
I'm leavin' even if I had to crawl
I've got some losin's laying round
That I left them burn, waitin' there for me in Omaha
