My Life

Deviates

What you think doesn't fucking matter to me
I like my life run by me, it's gonna be
I might decide to change my ways
Or I might decide to ruin your dayOkay, I figured it out, 2 people and 1 chair
That's what it's, what it's all about
Your life is just a single day
Wake up, go to work, you never escapeMy life, it's all I have
It's something we share
And we die wondering if and why
No, I don't careWhat you think you saw, you didn't see
What you wanna be, hey, kid, you never gonna be
And my life is not gonna be that way
'Cause when I die, I'll smile 'cause I did it my wayMy life, it's all I have
It's something we share
And we die wondering if and why
No, I don't careTake a run, here's your chance, come and get me
I've been beaten but you'll never beat me
I've been beaten but you'll never beat me
Had your chance, now it's gone and it's up to meYeah, I understand you, you understand me
Now understand one damn thing
It's my life, my wayMy life, it's all I have
It's something we share
And we die wondering if and why
No, I don't careWasting away
Wondering if you will die tonight
I won't waste one day of my life
