

A Rush of Blood

Coasts

Are you looking for something?
Are you searching for someone else?
You say I feel better at midnight
Because the moon is your only friend
And I want you bad,
Oh I knew that you wouldn't wanna go without
I could be your hero
If you want me to, you've got to show me how
Like a rush of blood to the head
You were crushing hearts 'till the end
Like a rush of blood to the head
You were crushing hearts 'till the end
I'm a dreamer,
I wanna be a better man
I'll never be all that you wanted,
But I'll give you everything that I can
Like the greatest rush that you've ever felt
When we hear the sound
I could be your hero
If you want me to, you've got to show me how!
Like a rush of blood to the head
You were crushing hearts 'till the end
Was a young love lost in the night
Are we in too deep to decide?
Put the beat in my heart, the words in my mouth
Kept me out of the dark
You put the taste I my tongue, the life in my soul
Gave me air for my lungs
Like a rush of blood to the head
You were crushing hearts 'till the end
Was a young love lost in the night
Are we in too deep to decide?
Like a rush of blood to the head
You were crushing hearts 'till the end
Was a young love lost in the night
Are we in too deep to decide?
