

Mud Honey

Joanne Shaw Taylor

You're a dirty deal maker
A real smooth shaker
Selling that charm to any old taker
No worry no hurry
No witness to your business
No kindness to blindness
Your timing is priceless

Running round town waving that blood money
When your names already mud, honey

Mix of looking sharp
With a lil' touch of too hard
No rules to tend
Just break 'em to til they bend
Go looking for trouble
Double up the smile
You'd be pushed to find a sinner
Who'd defend your style

Running round town waving that blood money
When your names already mud, honey

You're a dirty deal maker
A real smooth shaker
You're still selling that charm
But there's no more taker's
The well that you reaped
Only ran so deep
You ain't getting redeemed
'Cause karma's intervened

Running round town waving that blood money
When your names long been mud, honey

When your names long been mud, honey
