Vendetta

David Todd Singleton & Ryan Parke

VENDETTA
Nothing you can say or do will change my mind It seems we're losin' everything
And now we're even out of time
I never thought it'd come to this
But here we are
And now it's over â€“ at an end No need for either to pretend
What I need from someone is to love me Someone to put no one else above me
You should have known that I'd never forgive you And now I'll do what I can to out live you
(Chorus)
It's a Vendetta
I'm ragin' out of control
I've lost a part of my soul and I can't stop it I can't fight it
I can't help myself
It's a Vendetta
And it's taken over my soul
Left me shattered feelin' unwhole
And I just wanna die
Knowin' I'm alone
It's a Vendetta
(aaaah, oooh, aaah, oooh)
No one knows me like you do
It breaks my aching heart in two
Words & Music Â© 2013 David Todd Singleton Ryan Parke
What I need from someone is to love me Someone to put no one else above me
You should have known that I'd never forgive you And now I'll do what I can to out live you
(Chorus 1x)
(Bridge)
If you thought you knew me
You wouldn't want to know me now
No more mister nice guy simply runnin' away All my life I played it safe
No more bein' good
I'm gonna honor this rage
(aaaah, ooooh, aaaah, ooooh) 1â•„2 Chorus
End.
