Crazy Chick

Charlotte Church

I think, I'm gonna need some therapy
Oh babe, I hope you've got a PhD
Won't you let me on your leather couch
I've got a lot, I need to talk aboutI think I'm crazy, think I'm stupid
Must have lost my mind
Wonder what I'm thinkin' lovin' you
'Cause boy if you were mineI'd really go insane
You'd be my favorite thing
I'd go ballistic
Yeah, you're making me a crazy chickYou're drivin' me, to insanity
All the things you do
You make me come unglued
I just can't help myself
I need professional help, help
I need professional helpYou've really done it this time
You know you're twisting my mind
You got me acting like a whacked out chickSo I won't be responsible
'Cause I'm really not logical
No I won't be to blame
You know I'm really not saneI think I'm crazy, think I'm stupid
Must have lost my mind
Wonder what I'm thinkin' lovin' you
'Cause boy if you were mineI'd really go insane
You'd be my favorite thing
I'd go ballistic
Yeah, you're making me a crazy chickYou're drivin' me, to insanity
All the things you do
You make me come unglued
I just can't help myself
I need professional help, helpCan't get you outta my head
So let me just confess
For those kisses baby, for your love
You drive me crazy, I can't get enough, noI think I'm crazy, think I'm stupid
Must have lost my mind
Wonder what I'm thinkin' lovin' you
'Cause boy if you were mineI'd really go insane
You'd be my favorite thing
I'd go ballistic
Yeah, you're making me a crazy chickYou're drivin' me, to insanity

All the things you do
You make me come unglued
I just can't help myself
I need professional help, helpYou're drivin' me, to insanity
All the things you do
You make me come unglued
I just can't help myself
I need professional helpYou're drivin' me, to insanity
All the things you do
You make me come unglued
I just can't help myself
I need help
