Alexandra Burke

I want you now
Like we're burning in a five alarm fire
I need you now
Cause' every second it's getting hotter, hotter, hotter
I want you now Sweat dripping from my brow
Hearts pumping high speed
Juggling this water down but I'm still thirsty
Only getting worse to close to you stand next to me
Are you warm
I feel my clothes sticking to my body
Should I take them off
If I keep staring in your eyes
I might get a little lost
If I start walking over now it seems the whole room starts to close
I'm starting a storm Oh
Nothing can cool me down
Look how I'm feeling right now
You've got my attention
Call 999
It's a problem I want you now
Like we're burning in a five alarm fire
I need you now
Cause' every second it's getting hotter, hotter, hotter
I want you now
Like we're burning in a five alarm fire
3, 4, 5 alarm
3, 4, 5 alarm
3, 4, 5 alarm
Fire Engines ring in my ear
The heats gonna start to burn
Come and whisper to me
Give me chills
With your dirty words
I can't keep myself away
The separation only hurts
How do you feel? Oh
Nothing can cool me down
Look how I'm feeling right now
You've got my attention

Call 999
It's a problem I want you now
Like we're burning in a five alarm fire
I need you now
Cause' every second it's getting hotter, hotter, hotter
I want you now
Like we're burning in a five alarm fire
3, 4, 5 alarm
3, 4, 5 alarm
3, 4, 5 alarm
Fire Nothing can cool me down
Look how I'm feeling right now
Call 999
It's a problem I want you now
I need you now
Like we're burning in a five alarm fire
3, 4, 5 alarm
3, 4, 5 alarm
3, 4, 5 alarm
Fire
