

Tell Me No Lies

Death By Unga Bunga

I am gonna take my time,
knowing that I'll never find someone like you.

I don't know if she wants me.
Even though she kissed me and told me.
What can I do? Hoping that you'll never plan to let me go.
At least you ought to let me know.

Tell me no lies, and I won't ask no questions.
Tell me no lies, baby please.
Don't ask me why I just can't shake you off my mind.

Tell me no lies, and I won't ask no questions.
Tell me no lies, baby please.
Don't ask me why I just can't shake you off my mind.

Can't you come a little closer.
Don't know why I even chose her.
The things you do makes me wonder if it's worth working for.
But then I only want you more.

Tell me no lies, and I won't ask no questions.
Tell me no lies, baby please.
Don't ask me why, I just can't shake you off my mind.

Tell me no lies, and I won't ask no questions.
Tell me no lies, baby please.
Don't ask me why, I just can't shake you off of my mind.
I just can't shake you off of my mind.
I just can't shake you off of my mind.
I just can't shake you off of my mind.
