

To Burn The Eye

Trivium

A mind lost within its own self
Existing to feed its hunger
Your body hollowed empty shell
Awaiting feed of the agesDarkness will cover the mind
Casting a shade on reasoning
Immolation of the human self
Conflagration of the egoBurn in your own hell
Life grand holding cellTwo become as one
One become a slaveBurn the eye to blind
Keeping truth from mind
Breathe in the life
Breathe in the lieNo longer are you human
Just a leech of the addiction
Loathing 'till insanity
Mental deteriorationTo destroy the faith
In humanityLife shell - shocks your empty shell
Hatred for those privileged unlike youYou think you will win
But you can't face the System of self destructionLife skins mind bleeding dry
Hatred for the self and the life
