

3 Lions

The Business

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Your TV image, sofa, and beers
Your gobbing off about Brittany Spears
Eaton, Cambridge - they paid for it all

You're just a wanker, but you think you're cool You're shit, and you know it

You're a middle class wanker, and know it
You're shit, and you know it

I can see through your image: it's bullshit Your PC image is just banal

You play it off with your sexist style
You ain't no different to what used to be

You wrap it up, call it comedy You're shit, and you know it
You're a middle class wanker, and know it

You're shit, and you know it

I can see through your image: it's bullshit You took the 3 Lions and made them your own
Who are you to say football coming home?

You ain't from the street

You're just so plastic, made a living out of being sarcastic You're shit, and you know it
You're a middle class wanker, and know it
You're shit, and you know it

I can see through your image: it's bullshit
