

The Human Instrument

Volbeat

See the titie klitie hootie boogie woogie girl
Distraction no sex, her looks kills more then guns
Deceiving, believing the web she spins on you Addicted, pathetic, predicted For a while or for a day we chase the darkness away
Feel the morning (whispers) though a sunny day
I promise to take you back into the vault below
I'll rise you from the underworld See the titie klitie hootie boogie woogie wicked girl
The sign of a pretty prickly ladies walking around with wicked souls
Chasing their eyes when they bleed again, oh baby girl oh baby gail
Chasing the life and let it roll Black December leave the earth and let us feel the morning fire
The taping fingers on my shoulder make my demons scream and lie
Chasing their eyes when they bleed again, oh baby girl oh baby gail
Feeling their eyes and let them roll
Chasing a life and live it Feeling the moment when they cry
My body is sentenced to see where they go
Still they are crying, and deny that mother earth has send them to shores far beyond Are we all the wonder of a life that we can call our own
Oh baby baby still the guiding and the taping leaves us cold Chasing their eyes when they bleed again, oh baby girl oh baby gail
Feeling their eyes and let them roll
Chasing a life and live it Feeling the moment when they cry
My body is sentenced to see where they go
Still they are crying, and deny that mother earth has send them to shores far beyond
