

Chocolate Jerk

Down By Law

All used up
And nowhere to go
Got a sad story to tell
But who wants to know? It's written on the walls
You sing it in the halls
You're gonna have a ball
Who catches when you fall? Don't look at me like that Don't look at me at all All used up
And nowhere to go
Got a sad story to tell
We all wanna know It's written on the walls
You sing it in the halls
You're gonna have a blast
Who watches when you fall? Can't look at me like that Can't look at me at all
