Torn Apart

Avatar

We were supposed to
Take on the world
But every day
Pulled us further...
We've gotten used to
Live in a world
That doesnt want us aroundTorn Apart...We have outrun you
So many times
But every fight takes
Another...
Been looking through you
Time after time
We have seen through
All your lifeARE WE
MORE THAN JUST A PART?
ARE WE
LOST RIGHT FROM THE START?
JUST TELL ME...
