

Romance to Me

Empire of the Sun

I haven't seen you in ages
But it's not as bleak as it seems
The tears have stained all the pages
It is all a romance to be

Since you've been gone, i've faded but i will reach out and you'll go forth
My ears have gone in phases
It is all a romance to me

Romance To Me
Romance I see

There's a joy in my eyes, I can't deny it
I will open doors who knows me
Replaced by the certainty of longing
It's the romance you cannot be

I can still hear the bells when I walk
But the movie has changed its key
Im touched by your breath as I sleep
It is all a romance to me

Romance to me
Romance I see

Romance to me
Romance I see
