

The Real

Nevertheless

Here I am tonight, I can't stand to fight
This feeling of despair, I hide
I wonder are you there
Sometimes, sometimes
(Sometimes we all wonder) This is you, this is me
This is who we're meant to be
We are the real, the truth is unchanging
This is the call to hearts that are feeling So it is sometimes that I feel
This life is far beyond repair
But I, I know that you are there
Tonight, tonight
(Tonight I won't give up) This is you, this is me
This is who we're meant to be
We are the real, the truth is unchanging
This is the call to hearts that are feeling Keep on breathing
(Keep on breathing)
Don't you let this take you down
Don't stop believing
(Don't stop believing) This is you and this is me
This is who we're meant to be
We are the real, the truth is unchanging
This is the call to hearts that are feeling This is you, this is me
This is who we're meant to be
We are the real, the truth is unchanging
This is the call to hearts that are feeling
