

Speeches

Walk Off the Earth

The second snow was heaven sent
You laid it out like evidence
Read all the words you never said
Like speeches for the president I drew your name in wet cement
Made promises in reverence
To save them for your reference
A victim of my circumstance but Oh, when you lay your hands on me
I know that I can heal
There's a blinding light that no one else can see Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oo oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oo oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me The signatures did finalize
Our pen had found the bottom line
The past that had me paralyzed
And all my future analyzed Do you think we got it right
The world will disagree this time
Will it turn the wicked tide
Or be a ghost that keeps us up at night but Oh, when you lay your hands on me
I know that I can heal
There's a blinding light that no one else can see Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oo oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oo oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oo oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me Will I never know your name 'cause I want to?
Did you ever care to say that you want me?
That's all I wanted Oh, when you lay your hands on me
I know that I can heal
There's a blinding light that no one else can see Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oo oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oo oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oo oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
Oh oh oh oh oo oh
Nobody, no, nobody but me
