Sun's Coming Up

Tame Impala

All those things I ever thought
Would never end
To think they're now all memories
Sends me round the bendTo watch her airplane swaying
Coming in to land
There my world is hanging
In someone else's handsAnd if I have done something
And you have to let me go
Think of me as someone
Someone that you knowBut if I don't hear something
Pretty soon from now
I'll disconnect completely
See how that works outI wasn't daring
Not much a chancer
Oh my darling
Why won't you answer?Seven a.m.
Midnight in Dover
Sun's coming up now
I guess it's overPlaying his guitar
While he's dying of cancer
Oh my father
Why won't you answer?Seven a.m.
Midnight in Dover
Sun's coming up now
I guess it's over

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/