

Rebel Of Babylon

Metallica

rebel grip your bottle tight just float away
rebel is it hard to leave
what makes you stay?
go take your poison ink
sign life away
then take your dirty spoon
and dig your grave
dig your grave
rebel grips the bottle tight just floats away
rebel finds it hard to leave
what makes you stay?
he takes the poison ink
signing life away
then takes the dirty spoon
and digs his grave
let this dark shine
let this dark shine
let it shine bright
don't let it burn out tonight
kill me one more time
stigmata
kill me one more time
neo martyr
gonna die young
gonna live forever
rise up
rebel of babylon
renegade fights the fight
that no one wins
he claims a crown of thorns
to pierce the skin
he climbs his crucifix
and waits for dawn
thinks they'll remember him
after he's gone

stigmata
rise up
rise up
rise up
resurrection
the rebel fights the fight
to claim a crown of thorns
to pierce his skin
climbs his crucifix
he loses consciousness
the myth lives on
tonight
stigmata
neo martyr
rise up
rise up
rise up
