

Kiss All the Bullies Goodbye (feat. Taylor Dayne)

Sir Ivan

They roam the earth since time began
A poor excuse for modern man
They have no use except to cause pain
On the sunniest day they make it rain
They think they're funny they're not they're sad
They think they're cool they're not they must be mad
They tease you and taunt you and push you around
They haunt you day and night, day and night
Its time for the world to kiss all the bullies goodbye
They make fun of other until they cry
(musical interlude)
Until they cry
Bullies don't belong, they ruin the song
Like a singer off-key its just plain wrong
They pray on the weak as if pain they seek Picking on others just to feel strong
They're twisted, sadistic shameless and ballistic
Out of control, narcissistic
They break you and bash you and push you around
They haunt you day and night
Day and night
Its time for the world to kiss all the bullies goodbye
They make fun of other until they cry
Its time for the world to kiss all the bullies goodbye
They make fun of other until they cry
(musical interlude)
Until they cry
Its time for the world to kiss all the bullies goodbye
They make fun of other until they cry
Its time for the world to kiss all the bullies goodbye
They make fun of other until they cry
It's time
