How Do You Feel

Hidell

No heart feeling
Cause you left me breathing
No more tears
You've got your reason

To throw away
My everyday
But still I'm reeling
What was I thinking
In the moment
My heart was stolen
A long night drinkin
What was I thinking (yeah)

How do you feel now
To see me one my own
When your not alone
How should I feel now
Since I've waited for you
You found someone new

No more hinding
She was there beside him
Wrapped around him
Wish I was still dreamin'
Cause you looked me in the eyes
If I would justify
All my reason
For why you should leave him (yeah)

Letting go isn't easy
As it used to be
But I will if you want me to
I guess I wasn't anything
You wanted me to be
Please come back to me
