Dead In The Water

Outcry Collective

If I was not myself
And you were someone else
I'd say so much to you
And I would tell the truth
'Cos I can hardly breathe
When your hands let go of me
The ice is thinning out
And my feet brace themselves
I'm there in the water
Still looking for ya
I'm there in the water
Can't you see
Can't you see
You've seen this all before
A life left on the shore
We're smiling all the same
You sail away again
I'm there in the water
Still looking for ya

I'm there in the water
Can't you see
Can't you see
Oh yeah
I'm dead in the water
Oh Still looking for ya
I'm dead in the water
Can't you see
Can't you see
Oh yeah
I'm dead in the water
Oh Still looking for ya
I'm dead in the water
Can't you see
Can't you see
Oh yeah
I'm dead in the water
Oh Still looking for ya
I'm dead in the water

Can't you see
Can't you see
