

In the Meantime

Smokie Norful

Laying awake in bed
So many thoughts run through my head
Wondering when my turn will come
But the last thing that I want to seem
Is ungrateful for the little things No matter what I do
Seems like I'm not getting thru
Can't say that I'm not hurt
Even though I know every word you said to me
With all my heart I want to believe What do I do in the mean time, do in between time
While I'm waiting trying to be patient
Trying to keep it all together
Yes I believe you're up to something
'Cause I feel the answers coming
Until I see what I believe
Let you love comfort me in the meantime
In the meantime, yeah Open up my mind
I need a word from heaven
I use them all the time
But your words are more than just cliché
Still I just keep getting in my way I've asked you what to do
Seems like I'm not getting through
Can't say that I'm not hurt
Even though I know every word you said to me
With all my heart I'm trying to believe So what do I do in the mean time, do in between time
While I'm waiting trying to be patient
Trying to keep it all together
God I believe you're up to something
'Cause I feel the answers coming
Until I see what I believe
Let you love comfort me in the meantime
Oh, In the meantime, yeah Can't say that there's a time when you ever let me down
What I need more than anything is to know that you're around So what do I do in the mean time, do in between time
While I'm waiting trying to be patient
Trying to keep it all together
God I believe you're up to something
'Cause I feel the answers coming
Until I see what I believe
Let you love comfort me in the meantime

Oh, In the meantime, yeah I need to know you're near me
I can't make it without you
Help me please oh Lord speak to me
In the meantime, in between time
In the meantime
