The Gem

Priestess

Back across the ocean
A dark thought that lingers inside you
You left a crack in the doorway
What motivation propels you?
If that seal is torn, our fate is certainLay waste to all the earth
We disappear
The one who ends all life
Becomes the heroRing down the curtain
No more illusions or lies
Our vile nature for hiding
Has opened up with the skiesLay waste to all the earth
We disappear
The one who ends all life
Becomes the heroThe ages are ending
Gone is the passing of time
Watch the angels descending
Gone is the holy divideLay waste to all the earth
We disappear
The one who ends all life
Becomes the heroLay waste to all the earth
We disappear
Becomes the hero
