

Living Bad Dreams (Bonus track)

Judas Priest

I'm hypnotised and helpless Beneath the pale full moon
My body is your sacrifice You spirit's coming soon I stare up at a squalid night It's been so cold and smooth Turns tender kisses into bites
As you begin to move You look so weak and fragile
You seem to drip and sway
But you swept me up into your arms
And carried me away I'm living bad dreams
I can't run from you
I'm living bad dreams
This nightmare's
coming true You led me to temptation Delivered me to pain
I walked upon you hallowed ground
My soul is yours to gain Your passion drains
my energy
Fear starts running deep I'm falling in slow motion
Into eternal sleep I'm living bad dreams
I can't run from you
I'm living bad dreams
This nightmare's
coming true [Lead Break] Your passion drains
my energy
Fear starts running deep I'm falling in
slow motion
Into eternal sleep

I'm living bad dreams I can't run from you

I'm living bad dreams

This nightmare's

coming true I'm living bad dreams

I can't run from you

I'm living bad dreams

This nightmare's

coming true I'm living bad dreams

ohh ohh

I don't want bad dreams

Living bad dreams
