

BABYGIRL

BWWWOYS

I heard you got the news today
Seems nothin' ever goes your way, oh, no
 Yesterday was a okay
Now today you're feelin' like you're lost, oh
 And he say, she say
 She's too young, there's no way
 Not on her own
 But who cares what they say
 'Cause no one can judge you at all
It's not about who's right or who's wrong
 'Cause you're not alone so
 Babygirl, take it one day at a time
 You can't just grow up overnight
Babygirl, I know you're feelin' butterflies
 But everything will be alright
 Everything will be alright
 Now everybody seems to notice you
 'Cause you're not really tryin' to hide a thing
Sometimes you're cool, sometimes your mood swings
 No baggy shirts to hide the change, no shame
 Nobody to lie to, to pry with what's inside of you
 And he say, she say
 She's too grown, poor thing
 All on her own
 But who cares what they say
 'Cause no one can judge you at all
It's not who's right or who's wrong
 Girl, you're not alone
 Babygirl, take it one day at a time
 You can't just grow up overnight
Babygirl, I know you're feelin' butterflies
 But everything will be alright
 Everything will be alright
So when you're feelin' like life's too cold
 Don't lose faith, just move on
 Hold on baby, as it's worth the flight
 And everything's gonna be alright
So when you're feelin' like life's too cold
 Don't lose faith, just be strong

Hold on baby, as it's worth the flight
And everything's gonna be alright
Babygirl, take it one day at a time
You can't just grow up overnight
Babygirl, I know you're feelin' butterflies
 But everything will be alright
 Everything will be alright
This song is dedicated to all the single parents
All you young girls strugglin', all on your own
 You're courageous and beautiful
 This song is for you
