You're Beautiful

Mojave 3

Velvet eyes are a part of me
Sunset smiles and secret tears
Time my life to a fallen leaf
Watch the spring in all its plumage

Beautiful like the stars at night
Twist and turn before the dawn
Beautiful like the moon at night
Ducks and dives into the sea

Curtains drawn, you'll miss the light
Your dawning spell will be broken
Vanished days are hard to find
Half-life dreams will not be worth much

But you're beautiful like the stars at night
Twist and turn before the dawn
Beautiful like the moon at night
Ducks and dives into the sea
