

Butta Love (you Got The Love Remix)

Next

I gotta be real wit' you, baby
Just gotta let you know
You've got the love that I want
The love that I need
Word is bond, it's butta, baby
Check this out
You're like my homie, my shorty, you've shown me so many things
And you're so special to me
We been kickin' it for a while, your sexy smile, Prima Donna style
Ooh, you're drivin' me so wild
Ain't got no reputation, educated conversation
And, ooh, you've got that bomb love makin'
It's more than sexual, this love you know, is proper dough
It's, oh, so, so incredible
You've got the love that I want, the love you want
You've got the love that I need, the love you need
Girl, it's so smooth and so creamy
You've got that butta love, baby
You've got the love that I want, the love you want
You've got the love that I need, the love you need
Girl, it's so smooth and so creamy
You've got that butta love, oh, baby
You've got it goin' on, word is bond, sundress with platforms
Feet pedicure with no corns
You've got that sex appeal, on the real, so sure
Soft hands, French manicure, no makeup, you're so pure
You don't be trippin' when I'm kickin' it s
You don't be questionin' where I been and what I did
You got that confidence, sexiness, thickness, that bomb shit
And I like it ohh
When I'm chillin' with my homies, think about it
I think about you only
You know what I want, you got what I want
You know what it is it's that butta love
All you got to do just hit me on my hip baby
And I will, I will I'll meet you at your crib, baby
'Cause I'll rock your world, I'll rock you, girl
Butta babe, butta babe
You've got the love that I want, the love you want

You've got the love that I need, the love you need
Girl, it's so smooth and so creamy
You've got that butta love, oh baby
You've got the love that I want, the love you want
You've got the love that I need, the love you need
Girl, it's so smooth and so creamy
You've got that butta love, oh baby
You've got those sexy eyes, enticing thighs, you make me rise
You've got that love I wanna try, send my tongue up and down your spine
You've got that perfect shape, the love you make, I scream your name
Wanna take all your clothes off, sex you till the song goes off
I like your everything, your navel and your pinky ring
Sexy from head to toe, girl, never gonna let you go
You got that confidence, sexiness, thickness that bomb
And I like it all, yeah
You've got it goin' on, word is bomb, baby
You've got that sex appeal, on the real, lady
You're like my homie, my shorty, huh
You've got that butta love
You've got it goin' on, don't you know, that's for sure
I like your face and hands and all of your pretty toes
Baby, you're so right, you're locked tight
You've got that butta love, oh, I want it, I need it
