

Beautiful you

Maroons (AKA Lateef & The Chief)

I'm a free fall, straight up out of control
Full of words of wisdom, I'm seeing double vision
From a dead on, head on crash course in collision
A sucker for a kind word, every voice I've heard
 This is my answer for you
 There you go again being beautiful you
 Setting fire to all you hold on to
There's a blaze in my hands portraying one-sided views
I'm letting go again, won't be another friend
 To a beautiful, a beautiful you
 I'm a concept in the human race
 A mirrored image, another shade of grace
 Molded by pride, barely holding on to life
 A prejudice lover always and forever
 'Cause this is my answer for you
 There you go again being beautiful you
 Setting fire to all you hold on to
There's a blaze in my hands portraying one-sided views
I'm letting go again, won't be another friend
 To a beautiful, a beautiful you
 Well I keep hearing what you said
 It keeps playing over and over again
 There you go again being beautiful you
 Setting fire to all you hold on to
There's a blaze in my hands portraying one-sided views
I'm letting go again, won't be another friend
 To a beautiful, beautiful, beautiful, beautiful you
