Ease My Mind

SiB

There's no more to be lost that you can't find
There's no right to be wrong if you ain't right
And all my wishes one day will be true
I don't mind dying and then I just think of you
When you're like the sky and I'm like the ground
And nobody's right right or wrong
Well you ease my mind
Well you ease my mind
There's no where to have been that you can't go
There's no more to be learned that you don't know

And all my wishes one day will be true
I just keep listening I've got nothing left to do
When you're like the sky and I'm like the ground
And no one is right or wrong
Well you ease my mind
Well you ease my mind
Well you ease my mind
Well you ease my mind
