Pain

Hollywood Undead

The necks of this youth
With their necks through this noose
We're told lies like it's truth
And we suspect that it's youSo you strap them with the AK
It's motherfucking may day
They swear I'm fucking crazy
Ain't nothing gonna save meI'm breaking, I feel it
I'm naked, I'm kneeling
I'm shaking, I'm reeling
My God, I keep bleedingI watch the world die for crimson eyes
I cry, it turns to night
I die, I see the light
And now, I'll say goodbyeNow, I can see your pain
I'm sorry, goodbye
I cry so hard
Now, I can see your pain
I'm sorry, goodbye
I cry tonightIf I could take all this pain away
Use the rage of our youth today
Whose to say that it's you to blame?
It's the people above youThe ones who say that they love you
Look what the world has come to
So, now it's time to say fuck yourself
You can and they drug youWhen no one is staring
When they numb you
Fill you with terror and crush you
Pretend they care as they shove youSo, you look to me to find the truth
And what I say is what you do
But everyone you look up to
Is really as fucked up as youTime is getting shorter
With these enforcers' orders
And we get blamed and pushed around
Who's the fucking villain now?Now, I can see your pain
I'm sorry, goodbye
I cry so hard
Now, I can see your pain
I'm sorry, goodbye
I cry tonightWe can't stop now, we're so close now
'Cause these times are almost over

I wont give up, so, God save us
It feels like we're getting closerWe can't stop now, we're so close now
'Cause these times are almost over
I wont give up, so, God save usNow, I can see your pain
I'm sorry, goodbye
I cry so hard
Now, I can see your pain
I'm sorry, goodbye
I cry tonightGoodbye
I cry tonight
I'll cry tonight
I cry tonight
