Goodbye Goodnight

Antiskeptic

so here we are today for another year you push me 'round
i'm hurt, but you'll see i'm ok it's typical new kid don't know the rules it's the food chain you'll see who's boss in this schoolit's freezing though it's warm as i recall and no it's not by punishment that i learnso say goodbye as you see me now i'm not hopeless, i'm not dumb words i won't take as they slowly pass me by yeah, i'm leavingso here we are grown up and in plain view it's years ago we squared off fighting at school for me now the pursuit of a dream for you now, mortgage and baby screaming
