Lie...It's Alright

Bo Bice

Ill get you back, Im out of cash
You can always count on me
Oh I forgot, I really did
Come on baby, just believeYoure so good at telling lies, Im like here we go again
And I dont need no reason why, you could tell me anything
Just dont think, I dont know that I should let you go
But youre beautiful tonight, so lie its alrightIm over here around your way
No, Im only stopping by
I though you said, you said to me
Come on over here tonightNo, I dont mind, I kinda like
All the stories that you tell
Its obvious but I dont care
'Cause youre doing it so wellYoure so good at telling lies, Im like here we go again
And I dont need no reason why, you could tell me anything
Just dont think I dont know that I should let you go
But youre beautiful tonight, so lie its alright, its alright, its alright
You know I want to change a thing, it's alrightYoure so good at telling lies, Im like here we go again
And I dont need no reason why, you could tell me anything
Just dont think I dont know that I should let you go
But youre beautiful tonight, so lie its alrightYoure so good at telling lies, Im like here we go again
And I dont need no reason why, you could tell me anything
Just dont think I dont know that I should let you go
But youre beautiful tonight, so lie its alright
