Dimmu Borgir

Ages of the past

Abrahamadabra

Forever to last

Ages of the past

Abrahamadabra

Forever to last

Abrahamadabra

Enter the supreme unknownFrom within the chambers

Comes expansion of thy own free will

From the outer rooms

Comes extensions of thy own free willFrom within the chambers

Comes expansion of thy own free will

From the outer rooms

Comes extensions of thy own free willThrough the confines of tomorrow

We reappear still, timeless and elementalFrom the ancient future

Comes the seamless and the endless

Ages of the past

Energies eternal, forever to lastAbrahamadabra

Abrahamadabra

Abrahamadabra

AbrahamadabraSeeing, evolving

Willing, achieving

Beyond the next worldsSeeing, evolving

Willing, achieving

Beyond the next worldsFlee the cage of insecurity

Enter the supreme unknown

Expand the inner and outer horizon

For it is as obvious as it's shownAs it's shown

As it's shownFrom the ancient future

Comes the seamless and the endless

Ages of the past

Energies eternal, forever to lastAbrahamadabra
