Hurt My Baby

John Hiatt

No need to be explicit

Anyone can see

Injury was permanent

The wound was really deepDoesnt talk about it much

I listen when she does

And when shes in that distant place

I know its just becauseSomebody hurt my baby

Somebody hurt my girl

Somebody hurt my baby

Somebody hurt, somebody in this mean of worldShes developed all these nervous ticks

To prove shes still alive

Does ninety down to zero

Back in overdriveHer sleep is just a nightmare state

She really gets no rest

Till someone has come forward

Till one of us confessSomebody hurt my baby

Somebody hurt my girl

Somebody hurt my baby

Somebody hurt, somebody in this mean ol worldSomebody hurt my baby

Somebody hurt my girl

Somebody hurt my baby

Somebody hurt, somebody in this mean ol world
