Hundred Million

Treble Charger

Take a step off your soapbox and see
What it's like to be on the ground
Check your ego in detox, baby
'Cause you're becoming unwound and it's killing me
Everyone complains about you
They don't even know what I've been through
I don't have the pain to doubt you
I just wanna throw you to the crowd
Ask them if you want, I'll tell you what they'll say
A hundred million people voting my way
Loud, everything is wrong
With everything you say
A hundred million people seeing my way
Go ahead, play the hero, this time
If you have any spine
I'm at tolerant zero today
You can say anything to make me stay
With everything that's happened to me
I'm losing faith in everything I see
Waiting for the walls to break free
I'm listening but I can't hear a sound
Ask them if you want
I'll tell you what they'll say
A hundred million people voting my way
Loud
Everything is wrong
With everything you say
A hundred million people seeing my way
Loud
You'll learn some day
You'll see my way
Don't be afraid
Just go my way
Ask them if you want
I'll tell you what they'll say
A hundred million people voting my way
Loud
Everything is wrong
With everything you say

A hundred million people seeing my way
A hundred million people seeing my way now
A hundred million people voting my way now
A hundred million people seeing my way

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/