Superman

The Receiving End of Sirens

You don't know what it's been like
Meeting someone like you
You don't know what it's been like
Meeting someone like youYou look like Jesus on a aeroplane
Ya head's against the window pane
You got opinions but you ain't got news
You got good laughs but when it suits you
You turn it on like a leaking tap
And dripping dropping people drop of a hat
You gotta mouth but you ain't got guts
That drunken mouth you should keep it shutYou don't know what it's been like
Meeting someone like you
You don't know what it's been like
Meeting someone like youSuperman on an aeroplane
Sitting next to Lois Lane
You got that woman but you want her gone
So you can sleep with a teenage blonde
You wear a mask wear an armoured suit
Can't get to you with the gun I shoot
You play your cards close to your chest because ya
Poker face is a dreadry messYou don't know what it's been like
Meeting someone like you
You don't know what it's been like
Meeting someone like youYou don't know what it's been like
Meeting someone like you
You don't know what it's been like
Meeting someone like you
Meeting someone like you
Meeting someone like you
Meeting someone like you
Meeting someone like you
Meeting someone like you
Meeting someone like ah ah ah aah
OohSuperman on an aeroplane
Sitting next to Lois Lane
You got that woman but you want her gone
So you can sleep with a teenage blonde
You turn it on like a leaking tap
And dripping dropping people drop of a hat

You gotta mouth but you ain't got guts
That drunken mouth you should keep it shut
