Sixth Form Girls

Saxon

Sixth form can't get out at night
They keep them in, it's an awful sin
Should set them free and let them roamThe lights inside their dormitory
When they go black, you sneak away
The plans are set but don't go yetThey run down town to join the crowds
They're leaving school behind
They meet the boys from the factory
They're staying out all night, all nightSixth form girls, they're looking good
Skin tight jeans, they're out for fun
They drink wine late at nightMeet some man who'll make them laugh
Buy them drinks and make a pass
Take them back to a penthouse flatThey run down town to join the crowds
They're leaving school behind
They meet the boys from the factory
They're staying out all night, all nightSixth form girls take their pick of men
They're learning fast the ways of love
Just sixteen, teenage dreamSixth form can't get out at night
They keep them in, it's an awful sin
Should set them free and let them roamThey run down town to join the crowds
They're leaving school behind
They meet the boys from the factory
They're staying out all night, all night
