

Eyes of Them All

Andy Shauf

camera kiss affix another smile bends my ears where i stay a while all i know this town can feel so smalli need to stretch my legs find some big mistakes find some big mistakesdream maker takes another sip starts a file through her fingertips and tiptoe[?] falling into light oh it seems like truth i could fall for you i could fall for youyou've got the eyes of them all you're just dancing on your own you've got the eyes of them all
you're just dancing on your own dancing on your ownshe stuck in circles start to feel her words float on past without being heard i'm awash[?]
poured out into nighti'll keep my eyes holding on to hers holding on to hers
you've got the eyes of them all
you're just dancing on your own
you're just dancing on your own dancing on your owni want another so that i can breathe deep in the cracks when she finally leaves
