

Sergeant Darkness

America

Thank the morning for bringing you
Hope you never turn your head and run
Thank the sun for shining too
Hope the darkness never comes again What it does to me
Isn't good to see You say that fortune brought you sailin' 'cross the sea
I don't believe you, I don't see how it's true
I think my dreamin' brought you here
If I wake tomorrow will you still be near? Once a miser, twice a son
Three's the devil, four's a lot of fun
Fun for living one and all
Start a battle, who's the first to fall? Hope it isn't me
Have to wait and see You say that fortune brought you sailin' 'cross the sea
I don't believe you, I don't see how it's true
I think my dreamin' brought you here
If I wake tomorrow will you still be near?
Should I live with rain, then the sky will clear

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>