

As the Sky Comes Falling Down

Violent Work of Art

A touch of sanity and nothing is the same.
I'm making enemies in many different ways.
In search for clarity and someplace to be safe.
This is the end, cause everything's gone to waste.

You made my greatest fears come true.
And now they're coming back at you.
You're gonna fall, I knew right from the start.
Cause this is, a violent work of art.
As the sky comes falling down.

I look for answers, to all my lies.
This smile on my face is such a bad disguise.
I am responsible, I am to blame.
I am the reason that, you're going down in flames.

You made my greatest fears come true.
And now they're coming back at you.
You're gonna fall, I knew right from the start.
Cause this is, a violent work of art.
As the sky comes falling down.
