All I Asked of You

Steve Forbert

Well, I hear you talk and I hear you tell it Well, I always get what the hell I want But we disagree once again, my darling,
'Cause it's clear to me that I usually don't.
All I asked of you was a chance to make it right
right...right
I was at that house where the one armed man lived
What I saw up there was some disrepair If I saw your heart after all weve been through would it look to be much the same in there?
All I asked of you was a chance to make it right
The way your sword tailed cat left the porch and showed me what a rocking chair and a kid can do Ill be on my waywhen your clock strikes morning down the break of day on the 5:02.All I asked of you was a chance to make it right right...rightThis is not the way it should be, my darling you should be my wife I should work all day you should rest your mind there in bed beside me when I get back home off the vast highway
All I asked of you was a chance to make it right
right...right.
