You Are The One

Him

No, I won't surrender
At any cost
You're something so sweet
And tender from my heart
Yes, I've done my evil
I've done my good
Just believe me, honey
I won't let go off you
You are the one
And there's no regrets at all
You are the one
And there's no regrets at all
We've had our share of misfortune
We've had our blues
And God is not on our side

Yes, it's true
Well, we keep forgetting, baby
The others too
There is no one who can take
That away from me and you
You are the one
And there's no regrets at all
You are the one
And there's no regrets at all
You are the one
And there's no regrets at all
You are the one
And there's no regrets at all
