Innocence (Junksista Rmx)

Uh Huh Her

I believe in fear, I believe in love
I believe in things that we can't touch
And you talk about the way I always dwell in dreams
And you talk about the fact that nothing is as it seems
I believe in peace though now it's gone
Never mind the face that we've become
And you talk about the weather like nothing's going on
And we talk about ourselves like we're the only ones
I look back
Back to our innocence
We need a little comfort
I look back, I look back, I look back, I look back
Wander, back to our innocence
We need a little comfort
I look back, I look back, I look back, I look back
Hey, that love you gave
Tell me how does it play?
Edge not far away without those lonely days
Hey, tell me what can I say?
Please don't run away
Perfect harmony
What have you done to me?
I look back
Back to our innocence
We need a little comfort
I look back, I look back, I look back, I look back
Wander, back to our innocence
We need a little comfort
I look back, I look back, I look back, I look back
I did it right this time around
Stand up
And time begins again
We'll do it right this time around
Turn your lights out
And give up the dark
I did it right this time around
Stand up
And time begins again
We'll do it right this time around

Turn your lights out
And give up the dark
I look back
Back to our innocence
We need a little comfort
I look back, I look back, I look back, I look back
I look back, I look back, I look back, I look back
