Seven Seals

Bill Hicks

The time has come, the end is near
A fire storm
The curse is done, my search is over
The altar of soulsDont wanna be the one to live in fear
Seven angels getting near
Dont wanna be the one, get out of here
With moonlights callingThe final day the sky will fall down
And we might all drown
And seven seals will breakThe final day will end in sorrow
Theres no tomorrow
The seven seals will breakFrom peace tough death, holy and true
The noise of thunder
The skies of Hell unfelt to earth
Another wonderDont wanna be the one to live in fear
Seven angels getting near
Dont wanna be the one, get out of here
With moonlights callingThe final day the sky will fall down
And we might all drown
If seven seals will breakThe final day will end in sorrow
As no tomorrow
If seven seals will breakThe final day the sky will fall down
And we might all drown
If seven seals will breakThe final day will end in sorrow
Theres no tomorrow
If seven seals will breakThe final day the sky will fall down
And we might all drown
If seven seals will breakThe final day will end in sorrow
Theres no tomorrow
If seven seals will break
