

Lonesome Cavalry

Lonesome Cavalry
Words & Music by Chapman James
Riding on my human
Heaven knows whereto
Trotting down intention-laden paths
Iâ€™ve got to pull his reins in
So Heâ€™ll go straight ahead
Instead of wandering off for greener smelling grass
Sometimes on my human
I pass a kindred soul
I wonder if she recognizes me
Cause sheâ€™s up on her human
Distracted and misled
She wants a friend, her human wants a steed

Chorus:

Move alongâ€¦ my human
Get alongâ€¦ my trusty steed
Hereâ€™s a songâ€¦ for my human
Weâ€™re a lonesome cavalry
Humans brand each other
By color, shape and size
And follow those of favored skin and birth
Breeds may run together but one by one as they go by
The touch of every rider shows their worth
I ride up to a Cliffside
And look out on the world
Every human herded to and fro
Some stampede the masses
Others hold their ground
So much to learn, so far they have to go:

Chorus:

At night when things are quiet
When my humanâ€™s fast asleep
I gaze up at the stars and think of home
Iâ€™d like to get back someday
But this journey makes me feel
Without my human Iâ€™d go back alone

Chorus:
