Soba violence
Soba violence, it's true
Soba violence
Soba violence, it's youDropped my yen
Into the ticket machine
Just getting some noodles
The place wasn't too clean
Just tried to help my man out
But he started breaking fool, going off onSoba violence
Soba violence, it's true
Soba violence
Soba violence, it's youYoshimi tried to calm shit down
But the shit just escalated
The man started swinging wild
It was real ill fated
The shit wouldn't stop
He said, "He wanted more of that"Soba violence
Soba violence, it's true
Soba violence
Soba violence, it's youThe time had come
Bum rush him out the door
We we're trying to help him
Out but he ended up kind of sore
The cops we're sitting outside
But they we're doing nothing about thatSoba violence
