Soba Violence

Beastie Boys

Soba violence Soba violence, it's true Soba violence Soba violence, it's youDropped my yen Into the ticket machine Just getting some noodles The place wasn't too clean Just tried to help my man out But he started breaking fool, going off on Soba violence Soba violence, it's true Soba violence Soba violence, it's youYoshimi tried to calm shit down But the shit just escalated The man started swinging wild It was real ill fated The shit wouldn't stop He said, "He wanted more of that"Soba violence Soba violence, it's true Soba violence Soba violence, it's youThe time had come Bum rush him out the door We we're trying to help him Out but he ended up kind of sore The cops we're sitting outside But they we're doing nothing about that Soba violence Soba violence, it's trueHey Mario, could you punch that?
