Soft Revolution

Stars

We are here to save your life The fool, the drunk, the child and his wife We won't let the sun go down We're gonna chase the demons out of townSing it when you feel alone Backwards through the megaphone Sing it to the ones you love And the ones you'd like to be rid ofWe are here to take the blame To take the taunts, and live the shame We are here to make you feel It terrifies you, but it's realIt will keep you up all night And in a flood, the morning light Spilling out across your room You say the words will get there soonThe revolution wasn't bad We hit the streets with all we had Tape recording of the sound Of the velvet undergroundA kay way jacket torn to shreds And a dream inside our heads And after changing everything They couldn't tell, we couldn't singAfter changing everything They couldn't tell, they couldn't sing They couldn't tell, we couldn't sing And that changes everything
